2. The planes parked in front of the hangars were still covered with tarpaulins on 1 August 1950. No flights were observed prior to 1 p.m. About 30 soldiers were cleaning an area near the six or eight AA guns on the northwestern edge of the field. ***

25X1A

There are no indications that the occupation of the field has changed since 19 July 1950. [REDACTED] One ground attack regiment is believed to still be stationed there. An air reconnaissance regiment has also been carried in Schoenwalde. The present report does not indicate whether the air reconnaissance regiment is still there.
